INTRODUCTION

WHAT IS Y.E.S.?

The Young Entomologists' Society (Y.E.S.) is a unique and outstanding international entomological organization that caters to the special needs of youth and amateur entomologists, but is also worthwhile for professional entomologists, science and biology teachers, naturalists, natural history museum personnel, and insect zoo staffs. Our programs and services are made possible by affiliation with the United States Department of Agriculture, Michigan State University, the Entomological Society of Canada, and the American Entomological Society. Major financial support comes from the membership.

Y.E.S. has many useful programs and services, of which this Y.E.S. INTERNATIONAL ENTOMOLOGICAL RESOURCE GUIDE is but one example. We assist all entomologists in establishing contact with colleagues in other geographic regions who share similar entomological interests, so that they might learn from one another by sharing information, advice, literature and specimens. We offer opportunities for members to become involved in the actual operation of the Society, and we publish member articles and illustrations in a journal free of page charges. We also sponsor activities such as illustration, photography and writing competitions for members.

The Society journal, Y.E.S. QUARTERLY, is well worth the nominal membership fee. It is one of our primary methods of informational exchange among members, and is full of informative articles, as well as illustrations, Society news, field notes, puzzles, poems, and much more. We also publish an annual Member Directory.

We encourage professional entomologists to become involved in Y.E.S., as members or volunteers, because they serve as role models and teachers to guide the educational and personal growth of other members.

HOW CAN YOU JOIN Y.E.S.?

Anyone with an interest in entomology is welcome to join Y.E.S. Membership applications can be obtained by writing to Y.E.S. International Headquarters at the address given at the end of this section.

Any person who is interested in the programs and objectives of Y.E.S., but is unable to submit the necessary funds, is encouraged to apply for a scholarship to cover the cost of membership. These gratis memberships are made possible by the generous support of the Entomological Society of Canada, the American Entomological Society and Y.E.S. sustaining members.

If you need further information on membership, our scholarship program, publication exchanges, specimen Swap Box program, and/or any of our other activities and services, please write to us at the following address:

PURPOSE OF THIS RESOURCE GUIDE

This guide is designed to provide Y.E.S. members and other interested entomologists with information on persons and companies that sell entomology equipment, supplies, services, preserved and dried specimens, livestock, books and other visuals. This Y.E.S. INTERNATIONAL ENTOMOLOGICAL RESOURCE GUIDE is a cooperative project of the Young Entomologists' Society and over 150 dealers. I am sure that all parties involved in this project will benefit.

Every effort has been made to make this Resource Guide as complete and accurate as possible. All names and addresses have been verified in the past 6 to 9 months. A listing in this Resource Guide does not state or imply any endorsement of a particular product or service by the Young Entomologists' Society, its officers or members, or any of the sponsoring organizations.

HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE GUIDE

There are four separate resource lists in this guide: (1) EQUIPMENT, SUPPLIES AND SERVICES; (2) PRESERVED SPECIMENS; (3) LIVING INSECTS (LIVESTOCK); AND, (4) BOOKS, AUDIO-VISUALS AND EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS. The complete names and addresses for all companies and individuals are given in the section beginning on page 22. This has been done to eliminate the needless duplication of names, addresses, and phone numbers for dealers that sell a wide variety of products, supplies and services.

I would like to point out to Y.E.S. members that they have free access to a variety of fantastic resources in the form of other Y.E.S. members. Please don't forget that Y.E.S. Section Advisors stand ready to assist you in finding advice, information, literature or specimens. We also have the Specimens Swap Box Program. Don't forget the Trading-post section of Y.E.S. QUARTERLY! Check a current copy of the Member Directory or Y.E.S. QUARTERLY for additional ideas or further information.

REVISIONS FOR FUTURE EDITIONS

Users of this Resource Guide are encouraged to submit information to improve future editions of this publication. We are especially interested in additions (new entries) and deletions (out of business, incorrect addresses, etc.). I would also be interested in receiving any comments or evaluations on the companies and individuals listed in this directory. It should be understood that it is a privilege to be listed in this Resource Guide, and any listee that does not exhibit good, ethical business practices will be dropped from future editions.

Persons or companies wishing to be included in future additions of this publication should send listing information to Y.E.S. International Headquarters. If at all possible, Please send a copy of any catalogs or lists produced as this will greatly facilitate the task of preparing your entry (and will assure the highest degree of accuracy and cross-listing). We need the following basic information: (1) Company/dealer name, (2) mailing address, (3) phone number (optional), (4) number of years in business (optional), (5) availability of catalogs/lists and their cost, if any, (6) specifics on the equipment and supplies, live specimens, preserved specimens, and/or services you can supply to entomologists.

NOTE: There is no charge for a listing in the Y.E.S. INTERNATIONAL ENTOMOLOGY RESOURCE GUIDE! So come on, send in your request for a free listing.

PRESERVED ARTHROPOD SPECIMENS

Ronald N. BAXTER (UK)
Many orders/species, worldwide; semi-annual catalogs.

Andre BRAUNSCHAUSEN (FRANCE)
Titanus giganteus from French Guyana

M. BUCHE (SWITZERLAND)
Peruvian butterflies

THE BUTTERFLY COMPANY (USA)
"World's largest butterfly house"; many other orders and families, also.

BUTTERFLY MAN (USA)
70 species available, mainly Lepidoptera

A. CHAMINADE (FRANCE)
Coleoptera and Lepidoptera

Mrs. P.T. CHANG (ROC)
100 species available: mostly moths, butterflies, beetles, and other showy insects of Taiwan.

L. CHRISTIE (UK)
Set specimens

COMBINED SCIENTIFIC SUPPLY (USA)
7000 species available (most orders), worldwide; biannual catalog.

COMPLETE SCIENTIFIC (USA)
4000 species available, worldwide; catalog, $1.00 handling.

DARIEN COMPOUND SAFARIS (PANAMA)
Several hundred species offered, mainly from Panama; annual catalog.

DECO ENTERPRISE (MALAYSIA)
Wide selection of Malaysian insects; catalog available.

Jacques DIEDRICH
25 species of large Coleoptera

Robert DUFF (USA)
About 500 species of Coleoptera, mainly from s.w. USA; free list available.

ELKA (FRANCE)
Insects and butterflies

ENTOMOLOGICAL CLEARING HOUSE (USA)
Many butterfly, moth and beetle species, worldwide; list available.

ENTOMON COLLECTIONS (FRANCE)

Lepidoptera and popular Coleoptera

E. Z. BRANES FLORES (SPAIN)

Andalousian butterflies, tropical insects (Philippines, Peru & Indonesia), and large Carabidae (worldwide); free monthly lists.

Josef J. de FREINA (FRG)

Parnassius and other large Lepidoptera; large carabid beetles

GLOBAL COLOSSEUM (SINGAPORE)

100 species, mainly from Malaysia, Borneo, Indonesia, Philippines & s. Pacific Islands; free list.

Thomas GREAGER (USA)

700 species offered, mainly Lepidoptera, larger Coleoptera and misc. large insects, worldwide; catalog ($1, refunded with first purchase).

HARTMANN (FRG)

Mexican Helioconids, Brazilian Papilios, Morphos, etc.

Thierry HEITZMAN (FRANCE)

Several dozen species available, worldwide, but especially s.e. Asian Islands, tropical Africa, South America and Europe; free monthly lists.

HELDERBERG HIGH SCHOOL ENTOMOLOGY DEPARTMENT (SOUTH AFRICA)

Several hundred insects offered, mainly from southern Africa; 4-6 lists per year (free).

Gerda HOHENADEL (FRG)

Lepidoptera species

IANNI BUTTERFLY ENTERPRISE (USA)

2000+ species offered, especially from S. America & Indonesia; list by subscription, issued every 4-8 weeks.

INSECT COLLECTING SUPPLY (USA)

Specialize in Coleoptera, worldwide; 3-4 lists issued per year (send SASE with US $.66 postage).

INSECT FARMING AND TRADING AGENCY (PAPAU NEW GUINEA)

Offer several hundred species of insects, primarily Lepidoptera, from Papau New Guinea; list available.

INSECT WORLD (USA)

2000 species available; worldwide, especially neotropical Lepidoptera & large colorful beetles; catalogs 2-3 times per year, $1 each.

Rudolf KENYERY (AUSTRIA)

Carabidae and Cerambycidae (Coleoptera)

Friedhelm KIRSTEN (FRG)

Stick insects and mantids

Anton KREMSLER (FRG)
Stick insects

J. KRUGER (FRG)
Lepidoptera

Gordon LE VESCONTE (FRANCE)
100 species offered from Europe and the tropics; free list on request.

Ursula LORCHER (FRG)
Cetoniidae

Elizabeth O. LUMAWIG (PHILIPPINES)
Offers Philippine butterflies, moths, beetles, etc.

Joe MAY (FRG)
Insect specimens

Veronica MERCADO (PHILIPPINES)
Offers a small selection of Philippine insects.

NASCO WEST, INC. (USA)
Offers 35 species, worldwide.

NATURE DESIGN (SWEDEN)
Lepidoptera

NATURE'S-ALL (USA)
Offers 2500 species of Lepidoptera & 200 species in other orders; worldwide, specialize in tropical and temperate America, Africa & greater Pacific area; list by subscription, $3.95/year.

Offers several hundred species from southern Africa; free list issued about 4 times per year.

Gerald PELISSIE (FRANCE)
Several hundred species, worldwide; list available.

Luis E. PENA G. (CHILE)
Offers several hundred species from Chile; free list issued twice per year.

Q NATURALISTS ENTERPRISE (UK)
Offer several hundred species, worldwide; catalog available (send SASE).

John REICHEL (CANADA)
300 species available, especially nearctic region,
Europe and Japan; free list issued twice a year.

M. SCHMIDT (FRG)
Carabidae (Coleoptera)

H. SCHMITZLER (FRG)
Sphingidae of N. Thailand

Jacques SEVRET
Titanus giganteus from Guyana

Mark P. SITTER (USA)
Offers species mainly from the USA, Mexico, Guatemala, and Australia; free list.

Jurgen STICHER (FRG)
Many species offered.

TRANSWORLD BUTTERFLY COMPANY (COSTA RICA/UK)
1000+ species offered, mainly Lepidoptera, especially European spp., Morpho and Parnassius; monthly list by subscription.

Nardelli UBERTO (ITALY)
Insect specimens

"Kelley" VAN HEEMST (USA)
"Butterflies of the world".

Roland VIOSSAT (REUNION)
3000+ species offered, worldwide; free list on request.

Eduardo M. WELLING, M. (MEXICO)
Offers several hundred species, mostly from Mexico and Guatemala; free list available on request.

Karl WERNER (FRG)
Specialize in Coleoptera, worldwide, but especially Europe, Africa, Australia and USSR.

WORLDWIDE BUTTERFLIES,LTD. (UK)
Wide selection, worldwide; annual catalog, $1.00

SPECIAL NOTE: The importation of living insects or other arthropods across state, provincial or national boundaries MAY require a permit from agricultural officials in the area where the specimens are to be received. It is to your advantage to make import permit arrangements before you order livestock. This could prevent possible delay or confiscation of your specimens. Some dealers and suppliers will help you with making arrangements. If you have any questions, check with your local customs or agriculture officials.

"DEAD LETTER" FILE

In an effort to make this RESOURCE GUIDE as comprehensive as possible, hundreds of companies and individuals were sent invitations to include their entry. Names and addresses were gathered from a variety of sources, including entomological journals, publications, and personal recommendations from Y.E.S. members. Many persons failed to respond to this offer to be listed; in other cases the addresses proved to be out of date and incorrect. This is a list of the correspondence that was returned to Y.E.S. International Headquarters. If anyone can provide information on the status of these dealers, please contact Y.E.S. International Headquarters. Thank you.
